CLEANER CANCELLATION POLICY

Opulence Bliss Ltd | Version 1.0 | Effective from: 1 October 2026

This policy forms part of the Cleaner Terms and Conditions. It applies to self-employed cleaners who accept Bookings through our platform.

1. Why this policy exists

1.1 When a Cleaner accepts a Booking, the customer and Opulence Bliss Ltd ("we", "us", "our") rely on that Booking going ahead. A cancelled visit leaves a household without a clean at short notice and can cost us a refund, so we set out the rules clearly here.

1.2 You are self-employed. You choose which Bookings to accept. This policy applies once you have accepted a Booking. Nothing in it requires you to accept any Booking or to work any minimum number of hours.

1.3 Terms such as "Booking" and "Cleaner" have the same meaning as in the Cleaner Terms and Conditions and the Customer Terms and Conditions.

2. Cancelling a Booking you have accepted

2.1 If you cannot attend a Booking, tell us as soon as you can through the platform or by emailing hello@opulencebliss.com. The more notice you give, the easier it is for us to find another Cleaner for the customer.

2.2 We encourage you to reschedule a Booking with the customer, rather than cancel it, wherever you can. A Booking moved to a new time that the customer agrees to is not a cancellation.

2.3 You have 2 grace cancellations in each calendar month. A grace cancellation is a cancellation of an accepted Booking that has no consequence for your account. The grace cancellations do not carry over to the next month.

2.4 We do not charge Cleaners for cancelling. If you cancel a third accepted Booking in the same calendar month, we may suspend your account under clause 5 instead.

2.5 Cancellations made by us, or because the customer cancelled, do not count towards your two grace cancellations, and your account is not affected.

3. Cancellations that do not count

3.1 The cancellation does not count towards the monthly limit, where you cannot attend because of:

- your own sudden illness or injury, an emergency involving you or a close family member, or a bereavement;
- an unsafe home, unsafe conditions at the property or unacceptable behaviour by the customer, reported to us promptly;
- transport disruption or severe weather that makes safe travel impossible; or
- a reason beyond your reasonable control.

3.2 Please tell us as soon as you can, and give us a short explanation. We may ask for reasonable evidence for repeated cases but will not ask for medical details beyond what is needed.

4. No-shows

4.1 A no-show means you do not attend an accepted Booking and do not tell us before it starts.

4.2 A no-show may lead to suspension under clause 5, whether or not you have used your grace cancellations. We will contact you to understand what happened before we decide.

4.3 If you cannot arrive on time, tell us and the customer as early as you can. Arriving late is not a cancellation, but repeated lateness may be dealt with under clause 5.

5. Repeated cancellations and suspension

5.1 We may suspend or close your account if there is a pattern of cancellations or no-shows, or a single serious incident, for example:

- one no-show where you did not tell us before the visit;
- three cancellations in the same calendar month; or
- cancelling Bookings in order to take the work directly from the customer outside the platform.

5.2 Before suspending your account, we will tell you why, give you the chance to explain, and take your explanation into account, unless there is a serious safety risk.

5.3 We will give you a written decision and reasons. If you disagree, you can ask us to review it by emailing hello@opulencebliss.com within 14 days. We will reply within 14 days.

5.4 Suspension or closure does not remove your right to be paid for work you have already done properly.

6. When the customer cancels

6.1 If a customer cancels late and we charge them under the Cancellations, Payment and Refunds Policy, you are paid your usual rate for the Booking in the same proportion. For example, if the customer is charged 50% of the Booking, you receive 50% of what you would have earned for it.

6.2 You may decide to charge the customer less than the full amount, or nothing, for example to keep a good relationship. If you do, tell us before the Booking time or within 24 hours afterwards. We will then reduce your pay in line with your decision and refund the customer the difference.

6.3 We encourage customers and Cleaners to reschedule a Booking rather than cancel it. If you agree a new time with the customer, no cancellation charge applies.

6.4 If the customer cannot be reached or does not let you in, wait 15 minutes, try to contact them through the platform and tell us. We will confirm whether the Booking counts as completed.

7. Fairness, status and changes

7.1 Nothing in this policy makes you our employee or worker. You decide whether to accept or decline work. If you cannot attend, tell us as set out in clause 2.1. To protect customers, only Cleaners who have passed our identity, right-to-work and DBS checks may enter a customer's home. You therefore cannot send a substitute. If you cannot attend, we will offer the Booking to another Cleaner who has already passed our checks.

7.2 We may change this policy by giving you at least 30 days' written notice. A change applies to Bookings you accept after it takes effect.

8. Contact us

Opulence Bliss Ltd

128 City Road, London, United Kingdom, EC1V 2NX
Company number: 15894675
Email: hello@opulencebliss.com